DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on November 7, 2005 has been entered.

Response to Amendments

2. Claims 1, 2, and 7-9 have been amended in the above-identified application.
Claims 1, 2, 5, and 7-12 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 1, 2, 5, and 7-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter, which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Independent claims 1 and 7 now recite that “the film or a precursor thereto is oriented on a molecular scale in one or more directions to provide a volume electrical resistivity.....”. There is no support for such an amendment in the original disclosure. Page 1, lines 35-38 state “optionally, a precursor layer to the final electrically conductive layer of the present invention is also stretched in one or more directions to provide the final composition with a surface and/or volume resistivity”. Hence, there is only support for stretching the precursor film on one or more directions. Applicants are required to cancel any new matter in response to this Office Action. Applicants are further reminded that any previous prior art rejections may be re-instated upon the cancellation of new matter.
